

Titration Application Note T-78

Determination of aluminum in cement by photometric titration of the solubilized product

This Application Note describes the photometric determination of aluminum in cement by titration of the digested sample using the Optrode (574 nm). After titration of the dissolved aluminum with EDTA, the EDTA excess is back-titrated with zinc sulfate solution.

